The above probation officer has reason to believe that the supervised releasee has violated the terms and conditions of their supervision under such circumstances as may warrant revocation. This condition is:

- A. Standard Condition: While on supervised release the defendant shall report to the probation officer.

On June 23, 2020, the defendant tested positive for cocaine, and the defendant was instructed to enter substance abuse treatment. On July 4, 2020, staff at White Deer Run in York, Pennsylvania, contacted the probation officer and confirmed that the defendant was admitted for detox for a period of four to five days. The defendant was then scheduled to be admitted to inpatient substance abuse treatment at Pyramid Healthcare in Quarkertown, Pennsylvania. However, the probation officer was unable to confirm that the defendant was ever admitted to the program and, to date, no documentation from Pyramid has been received.

On August 18, 2020, the defendant texted the probation officer and advised that his phone had been off. The defendant was instructed to report to the probation office in Reading, Pennsylvania, on August 24, 2020, with confirmation that he completed treatment. The defendant failed to report as instructed, and he also failed to provide any documentation regarding substance abuse treatment. The defendant was then instructed to report to the probation office on August 31, 2020, and to provide information regarding his substance abuse treatment; he again failed to report or provide confirmation of treatment attendance.
